Your next search will not be in vain. As a loyal reader of the pensée mili-terre site, you can now search the entire ecosystem at your disposal.

The SEARCH + tab will carry out a query on the 1000 articles already published over the last two years, on all the information sheets of the arms industry (Minerve shield site), the news feeds from the 100 blogs listed in PENSEE +, the 185,000 historical references - and more.references structured in MILINDEX, the 17 reviews from the military publications kiosk and, of course, all the publications of the Command Doctrine and Education Centre, Brenus, l'Eclaireur, the Revue de tactique générale, the Revue de doctrine des forces terrestres and the Revue militaire générale.

The settings tab will allow you to filter your searches for full phrase queries. A "real Google defense", with only results related to tactics, strategy, history and all the news of the global military environment.
